

Helping in the Park

Sue was playing in the park one day when she saw a little girl, crying on the edge.

So the little girl and Sue started looking for the lost dog. They looked up trees and down ditches, in the stream and over the bike hills. Just then, Sue heard a noise.

They ran over to where the noise came from.
