

my trip to london

i went to london on Saturday i went with my nanny and grandad and it was really exciting we went to oxford circus on the tube and saw all the shops next we walked to the zoo and saw the huge elephants and some silly penguins, that bobbed their heads up and down after that grandad said that he was getting hungry so we went to get some food at mcdonalds i had a burger and chips it was lovely in the afternoon nanny told us that as a surprise, she had booked tickets to see the lion king it was so fantastic we were in the front row by the time we had finished it was dark and so we went home on the train
